

INTAKE FORM

We welcome you to Holy Family Counseling Center, a faith based, independent private practice. It is the goal of your counselor to help you through the difficulties you are experiencing by addressing the whole person and family with dignity. Your counselor will strive to form a collaborative relationship with you in order to assist you in finding healthy solutions to your problems. Although we are independent of the Catholic Archdiocese of Atlanta, Holy Family Counseling Center strives to serve its people by providing evidenced based mental health services that are consistent with Catholic teaching. These pages contain information regarding office policies. Please read them and discuss any questions with your counselor. Your signature where indicated signifies that you have read, understand and agree to abide by these policies.

CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS (please initial each)

- ___ 1. I agree to pay a counseling fee of $125.00 per each 50 minute session. If I qualify for a discount, the counseling fee will then be $ _____. I understand that in order to qualify for a discounted counseling fee, I will need to provide my counselor with the requested documentation which may include a copy of my latest tax return and/or pay stub. I understand that any discounted counseling fee will be reevaluated every 6 months or as the conditions of my income change and that this discounted counseling fee may also change.
- ___ 2. I understand that payment is due at time of service. If you are unable to keep an appointment, kindly give 24 hours notice, or the counseling fee agreed upon will apply and be charged.
- ___ 2b. I understand that if my counseling fees are being paid for by a third party and if I fail to give 24 hours notice before missing an appointment, I am responsible for payment of the counseling fee to Holy Family Counseling Center for the missed appointment. If I do not pay the counseling fee for the missed appointment, the third party will be notified accordingly.
- ___ 3. I understand there will be a $25.00 returned check fee.
- ___ 4. I understand that I will receive a form that normally suffices for insurance reimbursement.
- ___ 5. I have read The Privacy Policy and Informed Consent which follows.
- ___ 6. IN CASE OF EMERGENCY, please go to your nearest Emergency Room or call 911.
- ___ 7. I understand that Holy Family Counseling Center services do not include court case appearances. If we are subpoenaed for any reason, there will be a special rate assessed for this service. Please be aware that court involvement can have a deleterious effect on the therapeutic relationship.
- ___ 8. I understand that all information disclosed within session(s) is confidential and may not be revealed to anyone outside Holy Family Counseling Center without my written permission. The only exception is in situations where disclosure is required by law:
 - a) If I present an imminent threat of harm to myself or to others.
 - b) When there is an indication of abuse of a child or vulnerable adult.
 - c) If I become gravely disabled.
 - d) By court order or subpoena.

By signing this form you are affirming that you have read, understand, and agree to its contents.

PRIVACY OF INFORMATION POLICIES

This form describes the confidentiality of your medical records, how the information is used, your rights, and how you may obtain this information.

Our Legal Duties: State and Federal law require that we keep your medical records private. Such laws require that we provide you with this notice informing you of our privacy of information policies, your rights, and our duties. We are required to abide by these policies until replaced or revised. We have the right to revise our privacy policies for all medical records, including records kept before the policy changes were made. Any changes in this notice will be made available upon request before changes take place. The contents of material disclosed to us in an evaluation, intake, or counseling session are covered by the law as private information. We respect the privacy of the information you provide us and we abide by ethical and legal requirements of confidentiality and privacy of records.

Use of Information: Information about you may be used by Holy Family Counseling Center personnel for diagnosis, treatment planning, treatment, and continuity of care. We may disclose it to health care professionals who provide you with treatment, such as doctors, nurses, mental health professionals, mental health interns, and mental health professionals or business associates of Holy Family Counseling Center such as billing, quality enhancement, training, audits, and accreditation providers. Both verbal information and written records about a client cannot be shared outside Holy Family Counseling Center without the written consent of the client or the client’s legal guardian or personal representative. There are certain emergency situations or exceptions in which client information can be disclosed to others without written consent. Some of these situations are noted below, and there may be other provisions provided by legal requirements. _____ Initial

Duty to Warn and Protect: When a client discloses intentions or a plan to harm another person or persons, the mental health professional is required to warn the intended victim(s) and report this information to legal authorities. In cases which the client discloses or implies a plan for suicide, the mental health professional is required to notify legal authorities and make reasonable attempts to notify the family of the client.

Public Safety: Health records may be released for judicial and administrative proceedings, law enforcement purposes, serious threats to public safety, military, and when complying with worker’s compensation laws.

Abuse: If a client states or suggests that he or she is abusing a child or vulnerable adult, or has recently abused a child or vulnerable adult, or a child or vulnerable adult is in danger of abuse, the mental health professional is required to report this information to the appropriate social service and/or legal authorities. If a client is the victim of abuse, neglect, violence, or crime, and your safety appears to be at risk, we may be required to share this information with law enforcement officials to help prevent future occurrences and to help apprehend the perpetrator.

Prenatal Exposure to Controlled Substances: Mental health professionals are required to report admitted prenatal exposure to controlled substances that are potentially harmful.

Professional Misconduct: Professional misconduct by a mental health professional must be reported by other mental health professionals. In cases in which a professional or legal disciplinary meeting is being held regarding the mental health professional’s actions, related records may be released in order to substantiate disciplinary concerns.

Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: Mental health professionals are required to release records of clients when a court order has been placed. There must be consent for our counselors to disclose information which the couple or family deemed therapeutic or necessary for treatment of the individual, couple, or family. Holy Family Counseling Center services do not include court case appearances. If we are subpoenaed for any reason, there will be a special rate assessed for this service. Please be aware that court involvement can have a deleterious effect on the therapeutic relationship.

By signing this form you are affirming that you have read, understand, and agree to its contents.

INFORMED CONSENT FOR COUNSELING SERVICES

Name _____ Date ____/____/_____

Services and Staff: I understand that Holy Family Counseling Center is a professional agency offering a wide range of counseling services, and that these counseling services are provided by licensed psychotherapists, master level therapists/counselors, certified addiction counselors, and graduate level interns. In all cases, trainees are supervised by licensed mental health professionals. Unless you have otherwise designated, all cases are discussed within a team supervision setting in order to enhance and assure your quality of care. In addition to providing direct counseling services, Holy Family Counseling Center provides training and consultation.

Confidentiality: I understand that all information disclosed within session(s) is confidential and may not be revealed to anyone outside Holy Family Counseling Center without my written permission. The only exception is in situations where disclosure is required by law:

1. If I present an imminent threat of harm to myself or to others.
2. When there is an indication of abuse of a child or vulnerable adult.
3. If I become gravely disabled.
4. By court order or subpoena.

Electronic Mail: With respect to electronic mail (e-mail), I understand that e-mail is not a confidential means of communication. Furthermore, Holy Family Counseling Center cannot ensure that e-mail messages will be received or responded to if my counselor is not available. I understand that e-mail is not the appropriate way to communicate confidential, urgent, or emergency information, or to schedule/modify/cancel appointments unless you have arranged this with your counselor.

Emergency: Go to the nearest Emergency Room or call 911.

Session Recording: I understand that my interviews may be video or audio recorded for the purpose of continued staff training and clinical supervision. The recordings are treated confidentially and are erased after they are used. Any concerns I have about session recording will be addressed by my counselor. I will never be video or audio recorded without my permission or knowledge.

_____ Initial to grant permission for session recording

Risk and Benefits: I understand that there is a possibility of risks and benefits which may occur in counseling. Counseling may involve the risk of remembering unpleasant events and may arouse strong emotional feelings. Counseling can impact relationships with significant others. The benefits from counseling may be an improved ability to relate with others; a clearer understanding of self, values, and goals; increased academic productivity; and an improved ability to deal with everyday stress. Taking personal responsibility for working through these issues increases the likelihood of greater growth.

Eligibility, Appropriateness, Referrals: The delivery of services from Holy Family Counseling Center to me shall be contingent upon whether the counselor and I can agree that the services are appropriate given the needs and conditions I present. If it is decided that Holy Family Counseling Center is not the appropriate agency to meet my needs, I understand that I will be given referrals to resources more appropriate to my needs and goals.
